Catholic Schools Week

We are celebrating the joy and the history of our Catholic Schools. This afternoon we are having a religion bee and tomorrow is our talent show. Some parents asked if they could attend the talent show. We are asking that no parents attend; we will, however, post the show on Facebook for all to see.

Thank you to all those who attended our two open houses on Sunday and Monday. We hope that you had an enjoyable time touring the school and seeing the amazing work accomplished by our students and teachers. We are so grateful for all your support and encouragement.

This Friday is Teacher Appreciation Day and the closing of our CSW festivities. We will have Mass at 9 o'clock for anyone who wishes to attend.
